

3, 5 and 7 Haslemere Road (formerly Queen Street) Listed Grade II

Row of three estate workers' cottages. Mid C19; for Sir William Erle. Coursed stone front with ashlar dressings; brick at sides and at rear with vitrified headers. Clay plain tile roof with gabled ends and tile-hung gables and dormers at front with bands of shaped tiles; all gables have wavy pierced barge boards. Large brick axial stacks with corbelled brick cornices and square yellow clay pots. Picturesque cottage style.

EXTERIOR: 1 storey and attic. Symmetrical 1:1:3:1:1 bay south front; projecting gabled wings to left and right with porch canopies on shaped brackets in the outer angles and plank doors; centre 3-bay range has central plank door with gabled wooden lattice porch with shaped barge boards; chamfered stone ground floor window frames with hood moulds; all windows iron diamond lattice casements, those on first floor in gables and in two gabled dormers at centre; all gables at front tile-hung and with wavy pierced barge boards.

Built between 1845 & 1869 the Cottages were originally built for Sir William Erle who had bought and re-built Bramshott Place (renaming it Bramshott Grange) and needed accommodation for his workers. They were there when Queen Victoria walked down the street, which was then named Queen Street. Later it was to be incorporated into Haslemere Road.

1950's

1920s—3,5 & 7 ARE ON THE LEFT JUST AFTER THE PROJECTING SHOPFRONT (AND MILK-CART)